CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE—Donald Church Balfour

Professor of Surgery in the Graduate School of the University of Minnesota, Director of the Mayo Foundation for Medical Education and Research, and Head of a Section of Surgery in the Mayo Clinic; honored throughout the world for his accomplishments as a surgeon and for his notable contributions to medical science and education.

Presented by Dr. J. Roscoe Miller, Associate Professor of Medicine and Dean of the Medical School

DOCTOR OF SACRED THEOLOGY—Wallace Edmonds Conkling

Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of Chicago; a scholar whose background includes Williams College, the Philadelphia Divinity School, and Oxford University; for eighteen years pastor of one church, during which time both he and the church became nationally known; a wise administrator and spiritual leader; a religious statesman whose influence for good extends far beyond the bounds of his diocese.

*Presented by Ernest Lynn Waldorf, Bishop of the Methodist Church
Resident in Chicago*

DOCTOR OF FINE ARTS—Carl Milles

Creator of beauty, poet in bronze and marble, teacher of young artists; after a distinguished career in Europe he transferred his skill and loyalty to this western land which he has richly endowed with sculpture and monuments, and where he has lived to exemplify the motto graven over a gate at his home in Sweden: "Let me work while light endures."

Presented by Addison Hibbard, Professor of English and Dean of the College of Liberal Arts

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS—William Albert Nitze

A scholar who combines in rare fashion originality and thoroughness in research with brilliance in the presentation of his results; a teacher who has made French literature live in the minds of many generations of American students; a "Distinguished Service Professor" not only in his own University of Chicago but throughout the entire world of higher education.

Presented by T. Moody Campbell, Professor of German and Dean of the Graduate School

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE—Louis Ernst Schmidt

Scientist, educator, sanitarian, whose noteworthy contributions to the field of public health and the advancement of urological surgery have received world-wide recognition; teacher of great power, whose students have disseminated his idealism widely, assuming the direction of university departments in numerous institutions of higher learning; devoted alumnus of Northwestern, whose benefactions to the Medical School and to the Archibald Church Library have contributed in generous measure to the steady progress of the University.

Presented by Dr. Irving S. Cutter, Professor of Medicine and Dean of the Medical School, Emeritus

DOCTOR OF SACRED THEOLOGY—John Thompson

An honored clergyman of the Methodist Church, a pastor of distinguished ability; wise in counsel, sympathetic in ministration, courageous in defending the right and in promoting righteousness; the builder of a stately Temple of Religion in the heart of a great city where his influence will continue and his name will be revered for many years.

Presented by Thomas F. Holgate, Professor of Mathematics and Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Emeritus

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE—Wat Tyler Cluverius

A creative scientist, president of one of the nation's leading technological institutions, a distinguished officer in the United States Navy, whose brilliant career extended from the sinking of the Maine to his retirement in 1939, and who has recently been recalled to active duty in his grade of Rear Admiral; a devoted servant of his country in peace as well as war.

*Presented by Fred D. Fagg, Jr., Professor of Law,
Vice-President and Dean of Faculties*
